

Scrip Awards Finalists >>

2016

www.scripawards.com

We are delighted to announce the shortlist for the 12th Annual Scrip Awards.

Over the summer, our panel of 15 respected judges has reviewed all the entries to produce a shortlist that displays the wealth of innovation, dedication and hard work that the pharmaceutical and biotech industries have demonstrated over the past year. The full range of industry activities from big pharma, biotech companies and CROs is represented: from novel deals, to new drug launches and finding technological breakthroughs in clinical trials.

The Scrip Awards provides the industry with an opportunity to acknowledge its highest achievers across all parts of the value chain, and to recognize both corporate and individual achievement. This year we have introduced a new category to celebrate the smaller CROs, as well as an award to applaud the initiatives that pharma makes in the wider world with the Community Partnership of the Year.

As in previous years, we will be announcing the winner of PPD's Pharma Company of the Year Award on the night, just as we do for the Lifetime Achievement Award. We are thrilled that so many of you have taken the time to submit your entries. The winners will be announced at a glittering black tie ceremony at London's Grosvenor House Hotel on 30 November.

Congratulations to all our finalists and good luck on the night!
